The Time Warp Bible

By C. McGrath

This was THE Bible during the Jesus Revolution of the 1970's. Easy to read and with pictures. A very appealing Bible for the flower child back then. One of the first Bible's I became familiar with as a kid. Even today it is still a very readable Bible.

A book for all ages.

By The Ys guys

Based upon what I've read so far, I find this to be an easy-to-read-version of the Bible which I believe would help younger people better understand the Word of God. Too many churches and church-goers have held to the old language and old songs and old "rules" for themselves and the new generations, and many young people are not relating to those practices. This book seems to follow the King James and New Living translations, but in a clearer presentation for ALL generations. I highly recommend it and plan to order copies for my grandchildren.

Great translation!

By Mallory Heffner

This is my favorite version of the Bible to read! It gives a clear translation when I have trouble understanding verses!

The pictures are a little, shall we say, out of date (this Bible was made in the 70's...), but the important part of it is awesome!
