Wonderful Adventure and Love Story

By Anita

Quinn's Undying Rose is the sixth book in the Scanguards Vampire Series. Quinn is a vampire and works for Scanguards. He was married to the love of his life some 200 years ago, but when he returned to her after being turned into a vampire, she rejected him. Little did he know that he had left his wife pregnant with his daughter. Rose, his wife, was turned without his knowledge not long after rejecting him. Due to circumstances beyond her control she felt forced to go on with her life without Quinn. She refuses to turn her daughter and promises to protect all of her future descendents.

Now Rose needs Quinn's help to protect her great, great, great, great grandson from a ruthless vampire. Quinn had long thought Rose was dead and gone and now she is back in his life and telling him he was a father long ago and now had a grandson. How can he forgive her for not letting him know she had been turned into a vampire and for not telling him he was a father? Why had she stayed away from him all of these years?

This is another great installment in the series. I loved the history of Quinn and Rose. The passion is still there. How they go about learning each other all over again and how they fight to save their grandson is a wonderful adventure. We get to visit again with old favorites of the series and learn new details of one of my favorite vampires, Thomas.

I highly recommend this book as well as the entire series. Tina Folsom is an excellent story teller and will have you captivated from beginning to the end. I know you will be very happy that you read this book.

'SORRY' I HATED ROSE!!!

By Edwina "I Love books"

I am sorry I tried to like Rose, but I found what she did to Quinn for 200 hundred years was unforgivable. Quinn and Rose were married in 1814 Regency England. Quinn goes off to fight in the war with Napoleon. Not knowing his one sexual time with his wife Rose left her pregnant. Quinn promises Rose he will return to her no matter what. Quinn finds himself mortally wounded on the battlefield and a vampire offers to turn him. When Quinn returns to Rose a Vampire she is scared of him and reject him she tells him to get away from her and throws him out. Rose is than attacked and becomes Vampire and refuses to tell Quinn that they have a baby daughter; that her parents made her give up to a family of farmers and that she has been turned a vampire herself. Instead of of Rose trying to find out the truth on her on or even begin brave enough to go to Quinn the man she is suppose to love, but no she believes a strange Vampire who shows up after she killed the Vampire who turned her. She goes and lives with him for years while he uses her. She leaves him and turns to stealing and prostitution to survive. One than Rose did that was good she helped other prostitute to survive on the streets from men who would abuse them. She had Vampire strength and speed, so she would fight off men that attacked other prostitutes. Over the years Rose opens up chains of Brothels and House of Prostitution all over the world.

However poor Quinn is left devastate and very hurt loving and missing Rose and in constant mourning. Rose has made him believe she is dead!!

Fast forward to the future Rose now needs Quinn's help to protect their 4th generation Grandson Blake from a Vampire she stole something valuable from his name is Keegan she has been this vamps lover for years. Quinn after a nano second excepts Rose back in his life and helps her protect Blake. Quinn is so in Lust with Rose he turns from an Alpha Vampire from other books to a wimpy puppy dog lusting after Rose in seconds. I lost all respect for Quinn. He takes all the blame for what happen on himself and it was Roses stupidity after she was turned that cause their 200 year separation. I wanted to scream to him and say this women has deceived you in the worst possible way she is a Slut and a Shank, she's been with tons of men in the past 200 hundred years!!! I wanted to scream at him WTF is wrong with you!!!

The story was good, I must admit, I just HATED Rose, If she hadn't had sex with so many men and maybe just protected the prostitutes and help them get decent homes this would have been a 5 star book for. I hated the way she though to. She kept say in the book she wasn't a virginal, shy Regency Debutante anymore!! How stupid to say that. What decent women would rather be a prostitute and madame then live the life of and young virginal debutante??? I didn't get it!!!

I am Not Highly Recommending this book, but I did enjoy re visiting the old characters and they did play major parts in the story. I loved baby Isabelle. This is why I gave it a 3 star review instead of 2. I really hope Cain's story is next. I will continue to read the series, but I won't pre order it. I will wait and read the reviews first.
