Alfred Dunhill shares his Experience on Smoking

By Rough Customer

This book was published in 1954, is 177 pages long, measures 8.25" x 5.25" x 7/8" thick. Hard board covers and I believe was issued without a dust jacket. Published in NY by Putnam's sons. The book covers all the bases from the history of tobacco, to the history of the match, to tobacco for smoking by pipe, cigar and cigarettes, growing tobacco, cigarette manufacturing and pipe manufacturing. In fact much of the pipe manufacturing information in the book appears to be where Hacker got much of the info in his book The Ultimate Pipe Book. The little 1954 book is a great one and a quick read, will teach you thing you didn't know, and I would recommend it for those interested in pipe smoking.

Nothing original

By KenP

Seemed a collection of data and boring stuff from lots of sources. It is a disjointed effort that lacks any magic about pipes and the accoutrements . The only saving grace for this boring writing is that it is a thin book.

It will still be a nice addition to my copy of Zino Davidoffs

By Frank W. Miller

Not enough about cigars for my liking. It will still be a nice addition to my copy of Zino Davidoffs book
