Weddings should be a joyful occasion—the beginning of a rosy life with the one you love. But for Fenella, this wedding is the scene of a crime, and she’s the main suspect. After changing places with the real bride, now Fenella’s taking the vows instead! When the groom, Heraklion, discovers he’s been deceived, he vows to punish her for it. But the truth is, Fenella’s in love with him. Their marriage is off to a bittersweet start... Frailty, thy name is woman!

Heart Wrenching~

By Paisley

I loved this story, very moving, heart wrenching. Fenella's cousin Penella was due to marry proud Greek, Lion, only Penella was a tease and ran out before the ceremony leaving a note, Fenella found the note and because she was very in love with Lion, decided to help him "save face", and marry him herself. No one would ever be the wiser till the ceremony was over. The veil, the rhyming names...Lion demands she stay married to him (Greek pride) and tells her repeatedly that after she gives him a son, he will throw her out of her life and she will never hold her son! Ugh!! Heart wrenching! Very worth reading.
