Dark but interesting - I would like to see another sequel to this

By Cynthia Corrow

This book is built on a unique concept - Earth is the punishment state for all dieties of all universes. It is a short book - at first I was confused but then re-read the book and got much more out of the characters. It tells the tale of a human host, Mikel, and how twisted and dismal his life becomes because the universe is angry with the deity that inhabits his body. Interesting how the 'gods' speak about humans, and the torment Mikel suffers. I like it - I would read from this author again.
