SHAD ROE BY JAMES RANDOLPH JORDAN PDF

Upon the long-awaited death of his abusive, alcoholic father, a son (the author) is certain that the arduous journey of returning home to bury his daddy will bring him the closure he has longed for. At his father's funeral, though, he meets others whose lives have been torn apart by his father's violence, perversion, and rage. When their stories seem to make redemption and mercy seem impossible, the author begins to wonder what forgiveness means.

A poignant and sometimes funny look at the tragic vulnerability of childhood

By Amazon Customer

A poignant and sometimes funny look at the tragic vulnerability of childhood. As Jordan revisits his formative years, the reader is able to see through the eyes of both the boy and the man—each bound by graphic experiences. Jordan is a masterful storyteller. This is an important read.
