HOLLYWOOD ASSASSIN: A Hollywood Alphabet Series Thriller

Things could be worse for LAPD Detective Kate Sexton. Okay, so her ex-husband cheated on her and the DVD of his indiscretions made the rounds of the entire department, she's broke and living above an appliance store with her canine partner Bernie who is a sexual predator, her British friend Natalie has a vocabulary that would make Howard Stern blush, and her mother is hallucinating about having sex with a dead president.

But things could be worse . . . like Kate could be stalked by a sadistic serial killer while she tries to solve a thirty year-old murder and save the life and reputation of a cop wanted for the crime. Come to think of it, maybe things couldn't get any worse because this is Kate's life.

Can Kate Sexton elude the killer, solve the cold case, keep Bernie's sexual wanderlust in check, keep her best friend under control, save a cop from death row, and find love again? Only time, loads of trouble, and tons of laughs will tell. Hollywood Assassin has more twists and turns than a car chase on Sunset Strip with a Hollywood starlet at the wheel.

WARNING: The Hollywood Alphabet Series contains adult language and laugh out loud situations not for the faint of heart!

If you think you can handle Kate Sexton's crazy life . . . order Hollywood Assassin today.

Hollywood Assassin is the first book in the Hollywood Alphabet Series. Other books include Hollywood Blood and Hollywood Crazy.

Howard Stern meets John Grisham

By Dave S

The plot of the story isn't bad, and the author does a good job of tying up all the loose ends. However, the over-the-top sexual violence is totally unnecessary to the story and serves only to make one think that the author is apparently some sort of perverted BDSM devotee. The character Natalie is mostly unbelievable, at least in terms of her constant stream of juvenile insults centered around, what else, sex.

Oh, and the correct word is "fledgling," Mr. Kelly.

Not That Good

By N. A. Eubanks

OK, I will admit I downloaded this book for free, but I honestly wanted to read it and like it. I am from CA and love these types of books, but I was very disappointed. I seriously MADE myself read until the end. It never got better, just filled with stupid sexual jokes that were not witty or funny. It was forced humor.

The story line was almost good and it had such great potential, but fell flat with a couple really unbelievable parts.

I remember hearing once that writers can write anything they want, go as far as they want with a book, but it should be somewhat believable or at least the reader must believe it. That is where this book lost me. It would be like Charles Manson getting out of prison! Sorry NEVER going to happen.

Author has talent just needs to stop with the dumb humor. I actually hate leaving bad reviews. I almost want to apologize.

Was pretty good read until.....

By Amazon Customer

I probably shouldn't review this book as I didn't read much of it. It was pretty good in the beginning, but then descriptions of animal abuse appeared. I didn't read much of that either. I don't know about other readers but I'm tired of the serial killer that the writer creates to commit acts which are written solely for the "ick" factor. If the reader doesn't mind or likes to read about horrible acts, maybe this book is for you, maybe I'll turn to the end to see what happens.
